

MANUFACTURER'S CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

FOR THE AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT OF 2009

Volatile Free, Inc. certifies the following VFI insulation products are "Eligible Building Envelope Components" that qualify for the Federal Tax Credit for existing homes allowed under Section 1121 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009:

| Product # | Product Description |
|------------------|----------------------------|
| VFI-714 | Closed Cell Wall Foam |
| VFI-716 | Open Cell Wall Foam |
| VFI-730 | Closed Cell Roofing Foam |

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009 permits homeowners a 30% federal tax credit of up to $1500 for the addition of Volatile Free, Inc. insulation to their existing home. This tax credit applies to qualified energy efficient products purchased and installed between February 17, 2009 and December 31, 2010. This credit is applicable for the 2009-2010 taxable years.

Homeowners should consult with their tax advisor to confirm that an installation of VFI insulation products qualifies for federal income tax credits. A taxpayer is not required to attach this certification statement to the return on which the credit is claimed. Income tax regulations require taxpayers maintain records sufficient to establish the entitlement to any credit claimed.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certification statement, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts are true, correct, and complete.
